History

The temple faces east. It comprises a garbhagraha, antarala and sabhamandapa. It is completely renovated. In the garbhagraha is a Parsvanatha Tirthankara image. In the lalata bimba of the door frame of the garbhagraha is a tiny jinabimba. The sabhamandapa has four pillars. There is also placed a Shantinatha sculpture in the sabhamandapa. The right wall of the sabhamandapa has an inscription, which records that Bommi Setti of Ganga family constructed a basati and made a grant. (1123)
