

16. Bhogeshwara and Prameshwara temple

Place - Kanavalli

District : Haveri
Taluk : Haveri
Locality : Kanavalli

Geo – Coordinates:
Lat : 14.806326°N
Long : 75.525707°E

History

It consists of a garbhagraha an antarala and a sabhamandapa. A Nandi in the antarala is facing the Sivalinga in the garbhagraha. In the ceiling of the garbhagraha and the antarala are Bhuvanesvari. On both side of the antarala door way are jalandharas. A Gajalakshmi motif is in the lalatabimba of the antarala. In the sabhamandapa are four free standing pillars, which are of Srikara form. On either side of the sabhamandapa are entrances. Sculptures of Ganapati, Naga and Saptamatrika panels are in the sabhamandapa. This temple consists of a garbhagraha an antarala and a sabhamandapa. The garbhagraha has simple trisakha doorframe. Bhuvanesvari is carved in the ceiling on both sides of the antarala doorway are Jalandharas. In its lalatabimba is a Gajalakshmi motif. In the sabhamandapa are four pillars. At the centre of the ceiling Bhuvanesvari. In the sabhamandapa are six Kosthas. In the two kosthas are sculptures. One houses a Chamundi and the other a Nandi. An inscription in the sabhamanadapa states about Mukarasa brother of Mahamandalesvar of Banavasi 12000.

3D Point Cloud

Plan